Dr. Schroeder’s clinical interests include sports medicine and adolescent medicine. He is a recipient of the Richard K. Ormsby, MD Memorial Award for general excellence in pediatrics.

In 2012, Dr. Schroeder published the article Clinical guidelines for family physicians: NIH guidelines for lipid management in children, teens in the Family Practice News. He is a strong community advocate, having played a role in the Pediatric AIDS Benefit Concert and Bridging the Gaps: Women Against Abuse program.

Dr. Schroeder has been on the medical staff at Abington Memorial Hospital since 2012. He currently practices Family Medicine in Blue Bell and Springhouse.

Dr. Schroeder is a proud member of Abington Health Physicians, a network of over 200 primary care and specialty physicians.