

RICHARD E. LANDAU, MD

Urology

BuxMont Urological Specialists

Richard E. Landau earned an undergraduate degree at the University of Michigan and a medical degree from the George Washington University School of Medicine in Washington, DC. He completed his residency in General Surgery as well as Urology at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital.

Dr. Landau practices urology at BuxMont Urological Specialists in Lansdale and Sellersville, Pennsylvania. His clinical interests include kidney stone disease, urological cancers, minimally invasive techniques to treat enlarged prostates and no-scalpel vasectomy and subspecialties include benign prostatic hypertrophy, erectile dysfunction, hypogonadism and voiding dysfunction.

Personal Statement:

“A brief career in industrial engineering led me to medicine. Although it is an extraordinarily interesting field, it lacked for me the interpersonal relationships that are fostered by a career in medicine.”

Approach to patient care:

“Absolutely ensure that the patients’ expectations are met and all their questions are answered when they leave the office.”
