

CHRISTOPHER M. NOTTE, MD

Associate Chief Medical Information Officer
Medical Director, Ambulatory Markets
Abington Health Physicians

Christopher Notte, MD is the Associate Chief Medical Information Officer, and the Medical Director of Ambulatory Markets and Informatics for Abington - Jefferson Health. In addition, he is a managing partner of "EHR Practice Consultants", offering comprehensive services to fellow physicians in the areas of practice evaluation, vendor selection and electronic health record implementation.

Dr. Notte has been a regular speaker for organizations such as Temple University and Pri-Med, and is seen by many as a thought-leader in the area of EHR optimization. Dr. Notte has had a long-term interest in Health IT and evidence-based medicine. As the CIO of Redi-Reference Inc., he has designed and developed programs for the CDC, the American Diabetes Association, the Infectious Diseases Society of America, the American Academy of Family Physicians, and many others. With multiple software publications on mobile platforms such as iOS and Android, Dr. Notte strives to help bring clinical decision support to the point of care.

Dr. Notte has co-authored a book on Implementing Electronic Health Records, and he writes a monthly column entitled "EHR Report" for a family of journals including Family Practice News and Internal Medicine News. Through these efforts he hopes to bring some clarity to the overwhelming and ever-changing field of Health Information Technology.

He lives in Montgomery County, PA with his wife (a fellow physician) and their two children.

Dr. Notte is a proud member of Abington Health Physicians, a network of over 200 primary care and specialty physicians.
