

COURTNEY HARRIGAN, DNP, CRNP

Family Medicine
Feasterville Family Health Care Center
Abington Health Physicians

Courtney Harrigan, DNP, CRNP, earned her nursing diploma from Abington Memorial Hospital Dixon School of Nursing in 2003. She then attended Immaculata University with a full scholarship, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing in 2005. In 2011, Courtney earned her Master of Science degree in Nursing at La Salle

University. In 2018, she earned a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree at Gwynedd Mercy University as a Jonas Nurse Scholar. She has experience as a registered nurse at the Clinical Practices of the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, and as a nurse practitioner at the Livengrin Foundation, Healthlink Medical Center, and Abington - Jefferson Health.

Courtney has a special interest in adolescent medicine, addiction, mental health and preventative medicine. She believes in a holistic approach—treating an individual’s physical, emotional and psychological needs. She became a nurse practitioner so that she could develop a relationship with patients and assist them on their health journeys.

As a registered nurse in Outpatient Cardiology at the Clinical Practices of the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Courtney worked with several general cardiologists and cared for patients with a variety of cardiac diseases.

As a nurse practitioner at the Livengrin Foundation, she is responsible for assessing and monitoring patients undergoing detox and rehab from illicit drugs and alcohol, ordering appropriate medications and treatments for patients’ varying illnesses and issues, and administering Vivitrol. Working in Employee and Occupational Health at Abington - Jefferson Health as a nurse practitioner, she is responsible for occupational physicals, surveillance programs, work related injuries and medication management for blood borne pathogen exposures.

Courtney is a proud member of Abington Health Physicians, a network of over 200 primary care and specialty physicians.
