

IRWIN H. WOLFERT, MD
Family Medicine
Springhouse Internal Medicine
Abington Health Physicians

Irwin Wolfert, MD completed his Bachelor of Science in Biology at Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pennsylvania. In 1984, he graduated medical school at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. Dr. Wolfert completed his Family Practice residency at West Jersey Hospital in Voorhees, New Jersey. He is board certified in Family Medicine.

Dr. Wolfert believes in the core principle of Family Medicine, caring for the whole person. He treats all ages, from newborn infants to their great grandparents. This allows him to care for entire families, giving him insight into family medical history as well as social-emotional issues that may be affecting individuals. He also strives to be an advocate for each person as they move through the medical system.

Dr. Wolfert has been on the medical staff at Abington Hospital since 1993. He currently practices Family Medicine in Springhouse.

Dr. Wolfert is a proud member of Abington Health Physicians, a network of over 200 primary care and specialty physicians.

Dr. Wolfert is an adjunct faculty member and the Medical Director of the Physician Assistant Program at Arcadia University in Glenside, Pennsylvania. This position aids in keeping him up to date with the newest medical advances and information.
