Abington Health Physicians

Daniel M. Moscow, MD earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology from Oberlin College in 1982. In 1985, he earned his Masters of Science degree in plant pathology from the University of California - Berkley. Dr. Moscow earned his medical degree in 1993 from the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He is board certified in Family Medicine.

Dr. Moscow has experience caring for patients of all ages, from newborns to seniors. He strives to help people with issues from minor to chronic medical diseases. His philosophy of care is to treat patients as a whole person. As a family physician, he enjoys getting to know people not only as individuals, but also in the context of their families, friends, and communities. Dr. Moscow emphasizes wellness and prevention, and he assists patients to achieve their personal health goals.

Through past experiences Dr. Moscow has been successful working with people of all walks of life. He is very pleased to be a part of Family Practice Associates of Upper Dublin, with its many years of excellence in patient care.

While in college, Dr. Moscow studied in Costa Rica for a semester. He spent a month in Haiti as a medical student. He also served as an extern at a migrant farm workers clinic through the United States Public Health Service and volunteered with Peace Corps in Thailand. As a resident, Dr. Moscow completed a one month elective in Swaziland.

Dr. Moscow is the senior and junior author of publications in the fields of otolaryngology, plant pathology, wildlife biology and botany.

He was awarded a College of Medicine Merit Scholarship by the University of Cincinnati in 1989.

Dr. Moscow is a proud member of Abington Health Physicians, a network of over 200 primary care and specialty physicians.
