

DAVID M. WRIGHT, MD

Pathology

David M. Wright, MD completed his residency in anatomic and clinical pathology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In his last year of post-graduate training, Dr. Wright was appointed chief resident of anatomic and clinical pathology. Dr. Wright is Board Certified in Anatomical and Clinical Pathology as well as Medical Microbiology.

Dr. Wright has received numerous faculty and administrative appointments and been a principal contributor to many published academic articles journals such as the American Journal of Public Health, Surgical Neurology, the American Journal of Ophthalmology and Journal of Infection.

Dr. Wright specializes in anatomical and clinical pathology at Lansdale Hospital in Lansdale, Pennsylvania. He has a special interest in general surgical pathology, gastrointestinal pathology, immunohematology and parasitology.

Personal Statement:

"In daily practice, I bring cutting edge technology and unsurpassed service, so that physicians and patients have access to informative and relevant diagnostic information."

Background

Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana
(BA, Zoology, 1965-1969)

University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
(MD, 1969-1973)

Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
(Residency, Anatomic and Clinical Pathology, 1973-1977)
(Chief Resident, Anatomic and Clinical Pathology, 1976-1977)

Dr. Wright is an active member of the College of American Pathologists and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. In addition, Dr. Wright actively participates in campus wide evaluation of patient safety and quality programs.

Contact Information

Dr. Wright can be reached at:
Lansdale Hospital
100 Medical Campus Drive
Lansdale, PA 19446
215-361-4622

Abington Memorial Hospital
Lansdale Hospital