

JENNIFER JOHNSON, CNM
Certified Nurse Midwife
Jefferson Health - Abington

Jennifer Johnson, CNM earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology & Women's Studies Gender and Health from the University of Michigan in 2010. In 2016, she graduated from Columbia University with her Masters of Science degree in Midwifery. Upon completing her MS degree, she worked as a homebirth assistant and home fertility apprentice in New York City in 2016. Jennifer later completed a year-long residency at the Vanderbilt Birth Center where she was a Certified Nurse Midwife Fellow until 2018. She then worked at Cambridge Hospital and the Cambridge Birth Center until May 2020. At the height of the pandemic, Jennifer was a founding staff member of an emergency response birth center in NYC, the Jazz Birth Center.

Jennifer is a Certified Nurse Midwife by the American Midwifery Certification Board.

Jennifer serves as a Clinical Operations Consultant for Primary Maternity Care, focusing on teamwork and training for community birth workers. She has been part of co-creating the PMC Network with the goal of improving maternity care equity and safety.

She has participated in several volunteering opportunities throughout her career. Currently, she is a peer reviewer for the Journal of Midwifery and Women's Health, a volunteer at Medicare for All Pregnancies Interest Group, and a member of the ACNM Racism in Midwifery Education Task Force.

Jennifer speaks both English and Spanish.
