

MICHAEL T. PARKE, DO

Family Medicine
Detweiler Family Medicine

Michael T. Parke, DO completed his internship and residency at St. Luke's Hospital in Allentown, Pennsylvania. Dr. Parke is Board Certified in Family Medicine.

Dr. Parke is on staff at Abington Memorial Hospital and Lansdale Hospital. In addition, he is the Medical Director for St. Mary's Manor in Lansdale and cares for patients at several other local nursing homes.

Since 2006, Dr. Parke has practiced at Detweiler Family Medicine. Serving Montgomery and Bucks counties for more than 35 years, Detweiler Family Medicine provides comprehensive general medical care to individuals of all ages with a continuous emphasis on prevention and early detection of disease.

Background

Pennsylvania State University
State College, Pennsylvania
(BS, Biology, 1988-1993)

Nova Southeastern University
Miami, Florida
(DO, 1995-1999)

St. Luke's Hospital
Allentown, Pennsylvania
(Internship, Family Medicine, 1999-2000)

St. Luke's Hospital
Allentown, Pennsylvania
(Residency, Family Medicine, 2000-2002)

Dr. Parke is an active member in several local, state and national medical societies. Additionally, Dr. Parke is involved in Clinical Research at his office in Lansdale, serving as an Investigator for studies that offer patients new treatments.

Contact Information

Dr. Parke can be reached at:
Detweiler Family Medicine and Associates
1970 North Broad Street
Lansdale, Pa 19446
www.detweilerfamilymedicine.com